

POWERS TO ACT ON BALKAN CRASH; STILL TALK WAR

Berlin Treaty Signatories Will Judge Moves of Austria and Bulgaria.

TROUBLE ON FRONTIER.

Hungarian Customs Men Are Driven Out by Servians—Montenegro With Servia.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—Great Britain has receded from her previously expressed determination to confine the questions to the discussion at the proposed international conference regarding the Balkans to the recent events in Bulgaria and Bosnia and Herzegovina.
As a result of to-day's meeting between Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary, and M. Jowlesky, the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, it has been agreed that a conference of the signatories of the Berlin Treaty is necessary, and it is further regarded as probable that the recent events in the Near East will necessitate the enlarging of the scope of the proposed conference to include other questions besides the independence of Bulgaria and the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

War Fund Voted.

BEIGRADE, Oct. 12.—At an extraordinary session of the Skupshchina today the following resolution was unanimously passed:

"The Skupshchina, after hearing the explanations of the Government and the steps taken by it, expects a serious activity will be displayed for the protection of the nation's threatened interests.

"With this object in view the Skupshchina will support the Government to the fullest extent."

The Skupshchina has sent an encouraging telegram of greeting to the Montenegro National Assembly, which assembled to-day, and voted an extraordinary credit of $200,000 to the Ministry of War. Further important decisions are expected.

Prince Talks Fight.

CETTINE, Montenegro, Oct. 12.—The Montenegrin National Assembly opened here to-day in an extraordinary session.
The war fever resulting from the annexation by Austria-Hungary of Bosnia and Herzegovina, which already is running high, has been strengthened by a bellicose message to Parliament from Prince Nicholas, who declared that the annexation of these two provinces had induced a crying wrong upon the people of Montenegro and that the people were prepared to sacrifice their last drop of blood under the peaceful endeavors now on foot resulted in righting this grievance.

Attack Hungarian Officials.

BERLIN, Oct. 12.—The Lokalanzeiger publishes a despatch from Belgrade today saying that Serbian customs officers from the town of Shabatz, on the Save, went over to the island of Bajuk-litz, which is Hungarian territory, and drove out from the settlement there between thirty and forty Hungarian customs employees by threatening them with armed force. The Serbians then took possession of the Hungarian customs station, which they continue to hold. They have been reinforced by Serbian gendarmes. The people of Shabatz, it is added, are celebrating this event joyfully.

LAWYER F. C. MARRIN IS PLACED ON TRIAL.

Swindled Woman by "Crude Forgeries," Says District Attorney Clarke.

Frank C. Marrin, the Brooklyn lawyer, who was indicted thirteen years ago for defrauding his client, Mrs. Caroline Barry, an eccentric widow, who lived in Clinton avenue, near Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn, out of $70,000, by means of bogus mortgages, was placed on trial to-day before Judge Dike in the Kings County Court. The indictment against Marrin charges forgery in the first degree.

When the trial began before Judge Dike to-day the court-room was jammed with Marrin's political friends. He is being defended by former Surrogate James C. Church.

In outlining his case to the jury District Attorney Clarke declared that the bogus mortgages Marrin used to defraud his client were the crudest sort of forgery. Many of the mortgages described blank yards and vacant areas as buildings.

SLEUTH NOT HELD ON PERJURY CHARGE.

Testimony Before Grand Jury Was at Variance With Evidence at Trial.

Michael La Gruta, a young detective attached to the Central office, was arrested on a charge of perjury by order of Judge Roosevelt to-day, but was later released on the request of District Attorney Jerome. The alleged offense of the policeman will be passed upon by the Police Commissioner.

La Gruta went on the stand in Judge Rooseley's court to-day and gave under oath testimony contradicting that which he gave before the Grand Jury against a pickpocket fifteen months ago. When a search of the records before the Grand Jury was made, it was found that he had given evidence in the case of the pickpocket.

The District Attorney, after looking up the testimony, then looking up the Grand Jury and in court to-day by La Gruta, who said that a perjury charge could not stand.

WANTS PECK TO SEELE FOR HIS EX-WIFE'S GOWNS

Clothing Man Who Got Divorce Says He Wasn't 'Husband' Who Ordered Them.

Solomon Kohn Contended Before Justice O'Gorman.

In the Supreme Court, today, that Solomon Kohn, the ladies' tailor of No. 23 East Forty-fifth street, should get his pay for $500 worth of suits and gowns out of the $500 monthly pin money given by Samuel W.
Peck, head of the S. W. Peck Clothing Company, to his wife until he divorced her last August, and not from her husband, whom he had sued. He said he should, because, first, they were not necessities, as Mrs. Peck already had more gowns and suits than she needed, and second, that the "husband" who attended her in her visits to Rosenfeld's store in April and May, 1907, was not Mr. Peck, but Frederick Calhoun, the co-respondent named in Peck's successful suit for divorce.

Mrs. Julia Solomon, widowed sister of the former Mrs. Peck and one of the heirs of the $200,000 estate of her father, the late Joseph Stiner, testified she was working as a saleswoman and had lived with her sister in her nine room apartment at the Ansonia in the summer of 1907. She said that Mrs.
Peck had a very large wardrobe, and that when Rosenfeld delivered the costumes sued for she (the witness) tried to get him to take them back.

Rosenfeld and his salesmen had described the "husband" who was with Mrs. Peck at the door, to whom she referred them, as she told them to charge her goods to his account, as a "tall, smooth-shaven man, thirty-eight or forty years old."

Mrs. Solomon said her brother-in-law was fifty-four, and always wore a moustache.

William J. Bell, a former employee of Peck & Houchins, and now holder of one share as secretary of the S. W.
Peck & Co. corporation, testified that he had sent Mr. Peck's monthly check for $500 to Mrs. Peck until her husband got his divorce last August, and had paid the rent for the Ansonia apartment and the expense bills of the household besides, and the case went to the jury without the appearance of Peck or his wife on the trial scene.

Samuel W. Peck discovered about a year ago that his beautiful wife, distinguished by a remarkably youthful and pretty face and dainty head, crowned with premature gray hair, had been "playing the ponies" and owned and raced the Maid of Timbuctoo, Contuelo II, and other horses, and, investigating, found that she had been always also deeply interested in John Calhoun, a horseman, and was lavishing money on him. Then he sued for an absolute divorce, and won.

CITY EMPLOYEE KILLED IN WRECK OF STOLEN AUTO

Martin Conly Jr. Crushed as Car Crashes Through Fence Into Subway Cut.

Martin Conly Jr., an employee in the Comptroller's office, and son of Martin Conly, ex-Assemblyman and Democratic leader of the Second District of Broo-lyn, was crushed to death under a 60-horse power automobile at 130 A. M. to-day when the machine, which was whirling along at the rate of forty miles an hour, leaped from the road, crashed through an iron fence and landed, bottom upward, in the open subway cut of the Long Island Railroad at Howard and Atlantic avenues, East New York.

In the machine with Conly was Alfred Overmud, a chauffeur, who lives at No.
50 Concord street, Brooklyn, and who is employed by Portus Thompson, a real estate agent at No. 20 Montague street, who lives at No. 20 Montague street.

The police say the car had been taken out of the garage without the knowledge or permission of Mr. Thompson.
Young Conly, who was twenty-three years old, and Overmud went to Conly Island last night. Until after midnight they remained at the island and then started back to Brooklyn. Overmud was not familiar with the roads and was attempting to break all speed records.

He came through New Lots Road at a terrific clip. Policemen saw him shoot past and signaled for him to stop, but he ignored them, and those who tried to follow were left in the distance.
He turned at the intersection of the avenue and the hill which runs from Pa-dick street to Atlantic avenue. Never did he seem to put on brakes or to slow up in the least.

Johnnie Nicholas, Benson, of the Borough Hall, heard the machine coming and then, through a cloud of dust and the lights, Benson knew the accident was in danger. Benson of the narrow bridge over the subway and the sharp turn necessary to reach this point.

Overmud ignored Benson's whistle as the machine struck the iron fence with force of a battering ram, and the fence and turned a complete circle, landing upside down at the bottom of the subway cut.

Overmud managed to save himself by jumping.

The car was taken back to the wreck. Half a dozen men had difficulty in lifting the machine from Conly's body. The dead man was taken to his father's home, No. 12 Adams street.

At the police station Overmud said:
"At what I had been killed instead of Marjory. Then he was taken to a cell.
Mr. Thompson's car was practically destroyed."

REIHT, IN WRONG, SWEARS HE'S THE WRONG REIHT

Twin Brother Swindled Pawn-broker Declares Man Who Got Ten Years.

After victimizing a pawnbroker by a trick the police declare is absolutely new and his own invention, Samuel Reiht, of Rochester, N. Y., went to State prison for ten years to-day, loudly declaring that his wicked twin brother was the really guilty party and he is the wrong Reiht.

Several weeks ago Reiht walked into a pawnshop at No. 13 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn, and asked to be shown some jewelry. He selected $1,300 worth and said he would be back later with the money. In a few hours he returned with a phreatic roll with a rubber band round it. The pawnbroker counted the money and remarked that there was only $1,200 in it. Reiht seemed much surprised and said he would count it over once more himself.

"While I'm doing it," he said airily, "you might make me out a receipt for $1,200, just to save time."

The unsuspecting pawnbroker proceeded to write out the required document, and while his back was turned Reiht produced another stout roll with rubber band round it, and, slapping down a dollar on the top of it, said: "You were quite correct. It was a dollar shy, and here it is."

Then he took the jewels and the genuine roll and walked out. When the pawnbroker opened the substitute he found $20 and some paper stuffing.
Reiht was captured by detectives after a long search and protested that it was a case of mistaken identity.

"Gee, that's my darn twin brother again," he remarked indignantly. "He's a wicked fellow, but he's my twin."
In the County Court of Brooklyn today he showed Judge Dike a photograph of a man who might have been—and probably was, the police say—himself.
Judge Dike didn't seem much impressed and sentenced him to ten years.

"If my twin brother turns up you'll be sorry for this," was Reiht's comment.

BRIDE WHO SLEW HUSBAND SWEARS SHE WAS BOUGHT

Seventeen-Year-Old Girl Declares She Was Sold by Her Father for $100.

Julia Madelin, the seventeen-year-old bride, who shot and killed her husband in New Brunswick, N. J., on Saturday night, declared to-day that she had been sold to Tony Madelin by her father for $100 four months ago. She had never met him, and had been forced into marrying him she said.

She is glad she killed him and says that she did the killing in self-defense.
The following is her account of the tragedy:

"Saturday night I was ill and lay on the bed when he came in. He asked me why supper was not ready, and I told him I was not well enough to get up.
He told me to get up and shut a window down. I said I could not. Then he struck me and made me get up.
He took his knife and said he would kill me. Also, he beat me and kicked me."

"I ran around him and got the revolver. He made as though he would stab me. I put up my hand to dodge him, and then I killed him."

When Madelin came home Saturday night he quarrelled with his bride. She deliberately fired upon him from the back as he sat at the supper table. The knife with which she says he threatened her was found on him.

GOMPERS ATTACKS TAFT IN DRIVE AT COURT POWER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—In performing a solemn duty at this time in support of a political party labor does not become partisan to a political party, but partisan to a principle, declares President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, in a circular issued to-day regarding labor's attitude in the campaign. He charges that the Republican party and its candidate stand for further extending in this country a democratic government vested in the judiciary, and that the Democratic party and its candidate stand for government by law vested in the people.

The circular, addressed to "Men of Labor, Lovers of Human Liberty,"

CURED ITCHING PAINFUL HUMOR

Which had Spread Over Face, Body and Arms—Swellings were as Large as a Dollar—When they Broke, Sores would Not Heal—Suffered 3 Years.

"My trouble began about three years ago with little black swellings scattered over my face and neck. They would disappear but they would leave little black scars that would itch at times so I couldn't keep from scratching them.
Larger swellings would appear in the same place and they were so painful I could hardly bear it and my clothes would stick to the sores. The first doctor I went to said the disease was scrofula, but the trouble only got worse and spread. By this time it was all over my arms and the upper part of my body in big swellings as large as a dollar.
It was so painful that I could not bear to lie on my back at night. The second doctor pronounced my condition a confirmation of the lymphatic glands. He stopped the swellings, but when they would break the places would not heal.
He tried everything that he could but to no effect. He said I might be cured but it would take a long time. I bought a set of the Cuticura Remedies and used them according to directions and in less than a week some of the places were nearly well. I continued with the Cuticura Remedies until I had used three sets, and now I am sound and well.
The disease lasted three years from the time it commenced until I was cured.
Before Christmas something broke out on my seven year old brother's hands in the form of large sores. I tried everything I could think of but to no effect until I happened to think of Cuticura and one application cured him. Also, not long ago, my sister got a bad burn on her ankle. I have been using Cuticura on that and it is getting her scarcely any trouble."

S.S.S. CURES ECZEMA, ACNE, TETTER ETC.

The skin is an index to the quality of the blood. Eczema, Acne, Tetter, pimples, rashes, eruptions, etc., show that some unhealthy humor or acid impurity is diseasing and corrupting the circulation, so that instead of supplying nourishment and strength to the fine, delicate tissues of the skin, it is continually pouring out its acid and unhealthy accumulations. External applications of salves, washes, lotions, etc., may relieve some of the itching and other discomfort caused by skin troubles, and for this reason should be used, but such treatment cannot reach the humor-laden blood, and therefore cannot cure. A thorough cleansing of the blood is the only cure for skin diseases. S. S. S., a purely vegetable preparation, is the best and quickest remedy. It goes down into the circulation and neutralizes and removes the acids, impurities and humors, thoroughly purifies the circulation and permanently cures skin diseases of every kind. When S. S. S. has driven the humors and impurities from the blood, and cooled and cleansed the acid-heated circulation, every symptom passes away, the skin is again nourished with rich, healthful blood and the trouble cured, as the cause has been removed. Book on skin diseases and any medical advice free all who write.
